Terms & Conditions For Inactive/Dormant Accounts

We acknowledge and fully understand the following definitions, rights, and duties that the relevant employee has explained to us:

1. Dormant Account: An account where none of the following transactions have taken place for one year for current accounts and two years for savings accounts: Withdrawals, deposits, transfers, electronic or authenticated balance inquiries. Transactions carried out by the Bank on the customer's accounts, such as deducting fees or adding interest, do not qualify as actions that make an account active.
2. Customers with Dormant Accounts: Customers whose bank accounts are dormant.
3. Active Account: An account where a transaction (withdrawal, deposit, transfer, electronic or authenticated balance inquiries) was carried out within at least one year for current accounts and two years for savings accounts through any of the Bank's branches or its other available means of communication or digital channels.
4. If the customer has other active accounts, he/she has the right to activate his/her dormant accounts after his/her identity is verified according to the Bank's regulations by visiting the nearest branch or through any other available means of communication.
5. If the account is considered dormant, the customer must perform the following actions: authenticate account balance and submit a written request to reactive account, through any available means of communication and according to the Bank's regulations in this matter.
6. The Bank has the right to close the account if a year has passed since the balance reached zero and the customer did not reactive the account.
7. Drawn checks will continue to be cashed and standing instructions will be carried out on dormant accounts and they will not be considered account reactivation.

Terms & Conditions For Electronic Services

- 1- Customer has reviewed and approved all the bank's electronic services terms and conditions published on the CIB's website www.cibeg.com, which include the Higher Authentication Service: One Time Password (OTP) that allows - as one of the features - to perform external transfers through electronic channels, and which is subject to update as per the bank's assessment.
- 2- In case the customer has chosen the e-Statement option, s/he will be able to review/print his bank accounts' statements and his credit cards' statements as well through Internet Banking, and declares that this electronic option replaces the printed statement that is sent through physical mail. And the customer declares that electronic statements communicated by the bank are accurate and confirmed by the customer, unless it was disputed by the customer within 30 days. The customer is also responsible for continuously maintaining the updated email address record with the bank.
- 3- The bank takes all necessary security precautions to ensure the confidentiality of customers' data, however the bank gives no guarantee against computer viruses or intrusions, the customer must take all necessary measures to protect private information. In addition; CIB is not responsible for any damages that might affect the customer as a result of using online services.
- 4- Customer must never disclose his/her username or password or any other authentication method related to electronic services or debit card PIN code to any third party for any reason including bank employees. In case this information is disclosed to any third party, this is considered an authorization from the customer to this party to use his/her accounts, the customer hereby is deemed responsible for all activities taking place on the accounts following this disclosure. The customer does not have the right to dispute for any losses incurred as a result of these transactions unless an act of negligence or deliberate action is proven against the bank.
- 5- The bank has the right to amend any of the terms and conditions regulating the electronic banking services at any time and with no need for prior notification to the customer. The bank will notify the customer with the amendments through the suitable means and such amendments are considered binding and enforceable.
